

Acquire a More Profound Understanding

"MY THANKS TO THE MELTON SCHOOL FOR ADDING INSPIRATION AND WISDOM TO MY JEWISH STUDIES...IT WAS A MEMORABLE AND TRANSFORMATIVE TWO YEARS."

The Florence Melton Adult Mini-School is:

- * A global network of learning communities where adults study together to acquire a deeper knowledge of Judaism.
- * A course of study designed for adults at all levels of knowledge and practice.
- * An educational approach that is non-denominational, drawing upon scholarship from different Jewish movements.
- * A curriculum that draws upon both classical and modern Jewish texts to explore Jewish practices, history, theology and ethics.
- * A classroom experience that is interactive, encouraging open discussion and multiple understandings.
- * A comprehensive body of knowledge taught by dedicated, qualified adult-educators.

There's Nothing Like It

The Mini-School offers a uniquely pluralistic perspective. Students are welcomed whatever their Jewish orientation, choice of belief or practice.

The curriculum, designed by scholars and educators at The Hebrew University of Jerusalem's Melton Centre for Jewish Education, is built upon research in course content and best practices in adult learning.

Mini-School students are invited to become continuing learners through our Israel seminars and graduate programs.

The International Alumni Association, open to all graduates, supports the growth of the Mini-School and offers members additional learning opportunities, such as the annual Alumni Kallah.

There are no tests, no homework, no grades and no prerequisites.

"CLASSES WERE CONDUCTED WITH AN OPENNESS THAT GENERATED SPIRITED DIALOGUE."

History

“In 1980 it was unheard of in Jewish education to even consider that adults would participate in formalized education, where they would go to a school on a regular basis and pay tuition and have a pluralist environment in a classroom. But I knew it was going to fill a human need that was not being met.”

— Florence Melton
